Dear Industry Representatives,

On behalf of the German Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology (GBM) and the German Society of Cell Biology (DGZ) we cordially invite you to join the international conference on "Age-related Human Diseases – Special Focus Autophagy" from the evening of the 24th of September through the afternoon of the 27th September 2019 at the Eberhard Karls University Tübingen, Germany. This conference follows the longstanding tradition of holding biannual international conferences, referred to as Herbsttagung, of the German Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology (GBM).

The Herbsttagung 2019 is jointly organized by the GBM and the DGZ. Together, the GBM (founded in 1947 in Bonn) and the DGZ (founded in 1975 in Heidelberg) share a tradition of more than 70 years as the leading bodies of bioscience experts in Germany with more than 6000 members from universities, research centers and industry.

In 2019, we will be organizing the GBM / DGZ Herbsttagung as a thematic meeting focusing on molecular mechanisms of age-related human diseases with over 350 scientists and more than 20 prestigious speakers from across the globe. The conference will cover research areas on

- Cancer,
- Neurodegeneration,
- Immunity,
- Metabolism, and
- Molecular Mechanisms of Autophagy

which will be discussed in consecutive sessions with oral presentations and prize ceremonies between the 25th through the 27th of September 2019. Preceding, on the evening of the 24th September 2019, we will outreach to the public by organizing a public lecture, to be held in German, and discussions on the topic of healthy aging and autophagy in human.

The preliminary program will be posted and registration and abstract submission will open in February 2019. For details about the scientific program and all congress related information please regularly visit our congress website at https://herbsttagung.gbm-online.de. Here, we provide you with a variety of marketing opportunities, including available slots for short talk presentations, and all necessary information to plan your sponsoring activities for the Herbsttagung 2019.

We are all very much looking forward to welcoming you as sponsor and/or speaker in Tübingen 2019.

Yours sincerely,

Tassula Proikas-Cezanne, Scientific Organizer
Johannes Herrmann, President of GBM
Oliver Gruß, President of DGZ
